Shorne Wood Country Park Visitor Centre achieves success In The Civic Trust Awards 2007 - 27/03/07

The 49th Civic Trust Awards were presented on Tuesday, 20 March at a gala dinner held at Blackpool's Winter Gardens. These prestigious awards which acknowledge the best in the built environment from architecture to planning, townscape to housing received over 236 entries this year. Around 300 built environment professionals attended the event to see 60 schemes, including Shorne Wood Country Park Visitor Centre, receive recognition.

The striking visitor centre at Shorne Wood Country Park, which opened last Summer, was designed by Lee Evans Partnership who worked closely with Kent County Council's Property Group and Environment & Regeneration directorate to turn the design into reality.
